The worst may come, the worst may go
Not without our say-so
And you can stomp on me
And I can stomp on you
All the world is on a tightrope
Long enough to give up hope
And you can stomp on me
And I can stomp on you
You can stomp on me
And I can stomp all over you
'Cause we will surrender
At the sight of frozen hell
And we will surrender
On the last ring of the bell
Well, if you wanna stomp on me
I'm gonna stomp on you
If you wanna stomp on me
I'm gonna stomp all over you
We will surrender
On the sight of frozen hell
And we will surrender
On the last ring of the bell
And we will surrender
At the sight of frozen hell
And we will surrender
On the last ring of the bell
