I have never cried in anybody's arms
The way that I have often cried in yours Please be the one to take my tears away
I was 22, I've had my share of views
I just can't steal that "happiness" from you But I'll be the one to take your tears away

I can't believe the things you say
tell me, tell me
tell me the lies

Fasting love will lead us all to nowhere
When, when will we learn
I shall avenge the death of all the romance Until, until I'm gone

I can't believe the things you say
tell me the lies
I can't believe the things you say
tell me the lies
I can't believe the things you say
tell me, tell me
tell me the lies
tell me the lies
tell me the lies
tell me, tell me the lies
