Folks like me would all agree that number three is still the key
And we give thanks to Cash and Hank every time we hear them sing
We bow our heads when we break bread and ask the good Lord for his grace, Every day, sweet amazing grace, yeah.

I got a rebel flag in the shop out back and Old Glory's flying high in the yard I gave my son granddaddy's gun I told him this is who were are
If the NRA ran the USA and we had some good old boys for congressmen
They'd make the White House understand That there's whole lot more of us than them
Can I get an amen?

Hey, you call us rednecks call us hillbilly's From small towns and big old cities but we're all the same
We're the backbone, the cornerstone
The homegrown blood that's pumping through this country's veins
And if you've got a problem with our kind
Then you can kiss us where the sun don't shine
Can I get an amen? Amen

Yeah we pull to the side when a hearse rolls by just to show a little bit of respect To be required to learn a few English words ain't too much to expect Our fore fathers put God on the dollar if anybody takes it off it's gonna be a sin We're God-fearing women and men and we don't care who it offends
Can I get an amen?

Hey, you call us rednecks call us hillbilly's
From small towns and big old cities but we're all the

The homegrown blood that's pumping through this
country's veins
So if you've got a problem with my kind
Then you can kiss us where the sun don't shine
Can I get an amen? Amen

Well I'm sick of all this trying to be politically correct, amen
I think we're handing out too many welfare checks, amen
Ain't nobody gonna tell me not to spank my kids, amen Cause I got the ten commandments to tell me how to live, amen
And not Oprah, Fox or CNN, can I get an amen?

Hey, you call us rednecks call us hillbilly's
From small towns and big old cities but we're all the
We're the backbone the cornerstone
The homegrown blood that's pumping through this
country's veins
And if you've got a problem with my kind
Then you can kiss us where the sun don't shine
Can I get an amen? Amen
I say if you've got a problem with my kind
Then you can kiss us where the sun don't shine
Now can I get an amen? Amen
