Verse 1:

One blow too much
One word too harsh
Fallen from grace
Nothing to lose
Hear the sound
Of breaking chains
Trail of rebellion
As only trace
The tables turned
At least for now
No words of wisdom
Will calm the crowd
The peasants marching
To bring the storm
Lead us princess
Bring us forth

Prechorus:

Like a sunbeam in the night
Your light is gone before you know
That you weren't struck by a man
But by the force for which we -

Chorus:

Stand in darkness no more
We have risen from the Ashes we abandon
Now to claim what's ours
Wait for wonders we can't
Fight against our failure
Stand in darkness no more
We have risen

Verse 2:

Your cities fall
With weakened walls
We stand the ground
The ground you hold
For what you did
We take our toll
Our hand has dealt
A crushing blow
The tables turned
At least for now
No words of wisdom
Will calm the crowd
The peasants marching
To bring the storm
Lead us princess
Bring us forth

[Prechorus]
