I'm kind of ordinary
To me you were sort of scary
But you seemed to like me
And it don't happen that much

So I threw caution to the wind
Gave you one half-hearted grin
That's all that it took
For you to try your luck

How was I to know you run hot and cold?
That you'd get inside my mind?

Level one, you played me, two, you paused me
Three, I realized
Your high score show, your cheats don't work
Your three lives up, bad luck, now it's game over

This is how it's gonna be
That's what you chose to be believe
Made me stay in while
You went out with all your friends

I was advised to walk away
But you blinded me enough to stay
I'm through with all your lies
And this is where it ends

Yeah, you played to win, I was taken in
But now you are out of time

Level one, you played me, two, you paused me
Three, I realized
Your high score show, your cheats don't work
Your three lives up, bad luck, now it's game over

No repeat chance, you blew it
You get no more clues
Now you're all out of special moves
Too bad, you lose

Level one, you played me, two, you paused me

Three, I realized
Your high score show, your cheats don't work
Your three lives up, bad luck, now it's game over

Level one, you played me, two, you paused me
Three, I realized
Your high score show, your cheats don't work
Your three lives up, bad luck, now it's game over
