"Envious Bitch"

I'm such a weird little girl
And when I see her face
I'm gonna smash the glass
I'm gonna leave this place

I'm such an envious bitch
I won't be happy for your sake
I'm gonna laugh at your back
And if you make a mistake

I will laugh
I will dance around you
I will laugh
I will dance around you

This illness is eating me
I've no identity
You try to rescue me
Can't take reality
This illness is eating me
It's been there all my life
There is no cure to see
This love - it's me and a knife

Sometimes I walk down the street
The people twist and turn
Somebody'd say it's ok
I say I want them to burn
Sometimes I go out at night
Just like a winter breeze
I know I'm young and tight
I know I'm such a tease

And I laugh
And I dance around you
And I laugh
And I dance around you

This illness is eating me
I've no identity
You try to rescue me

Can't take reality
This illness is eating me
It's been there all my life
The're is no cure to see
This love - it's me and a knife

Wanna come to my room
Wanna take me soon
Wanna see the moon
You'll see nothing but gloom
Wanna whisper my name
Wanna feel some pain
Think I feel the same
This is all in vain

This illness is eating me
I've no identity
You try to rescue me
Can't take reality
It's been there all my life
I've no identity
You try to rescue me
Can't take reality
It's been there all my life
