Little princess
So bright and pure
And insecure
Little princess
So torn and bruised
Raped and abused

Let me wrap you up in love
Let me wrap you up
I know
It's hard
To trust
To trust

When you leave me
Alone at night
I scream and fight
When you leave me
Can I get by
I'd like to try

To wrap you up in love
To wrap you up
I know
It's hard
To trust
To trust

Trying to hold on
I'm trying to hold on
To your sleeve
To prevent you
To protect you
From the world outside
Trying to be strong
I'm trying to be strong
To believe
You will make it
You can take it
In the world outside

I wrap you up in love
I wrap you up
I know
It's hard
To trust
To trust

Stay with me girl
Lay in my bed
I kiss your head
Stay with me girl
I love you so
Won't let you go

So I wrap you up in love
I wrap you up
I know
It's hard
To trust
To trust
