V1: Green grass and greyer skies, our fire's burning bright
When will the sun pour out and save us from this night Leave behind all your witnesses, they've witnessed too much to name
It's time to confront the failures, the one's that make us sane

PRE-CH: Forget all of your warnings, this is no prophecy Forget the things they told you, tonight you're out with me

CH: Just let the city walls come down
And I won't ever fall again, and let you bring me down
Just let the city walls come down
And I won't ever fall again, and let you burn me down

V2: I'll take your need for something, and we can take our time
There is no need to rush, let's make it through tonight
I know your arms are tired, just hold on don't let go Can't help that rome is burning, it's all we've ever known

PRE-CH: Forget all of your warnings, this is no prophecy Forget the things they told you, tonight you're out with
me

CH: Just let the city walls come down
And I won't ever fall again, and let you bring me down
Just let the city walls come down
And I won't ever fall again, and let you burn me down

BRIDGE: Burn this city down! Burn this city down! Burn this city down

CH: Just let the city walls come down
And I won't ever fall again, and let you bring me down
Just let the city walls come down
And I won't ever fall again, and let you burn me down
