Get ready for your life, won't you take your place in line
You may close your eyes if you please

Try to keep it clean, there's so many here you see, everybody needs to get by

And if you fall on your face on the way, you'll get it together someday

chorus:

Like the sun in the sky, we will fall and we will rise
Helping each other survive
Just like the animals, we need to carry on, or how would we ever survive?

Prejudice is pain, just like poison in your veins
Burning up your hope and your strength
Freedom you will find, in your spirit and your mind
Nothing ever can take that away

And when your castles of sand melt in the sea
Mountains will move with your faith

(chorus)

(solo)

(chorus repeats 2x)
