I didn't even know what I was doing
Didn't even know what I was saying
I felt my face and it was inside out
Well I could hear the blood rushing through my brain
And I could see tiny lights shootin' from my veins
And little voices in a swarm

Throat is like a fireplace
Tongue is like a razor blade
Illuminated before me
Looks to me like little honey bees

Well they were neat and sweet
With nectar dripping from their cheeks
It sounded like this...
No really, just like that
But they they danced it sounded like this...

It was dark and I was freakin'
Somebody seduced me into sex
My body moved like drop frame video
My hips looked like this...

It feels pretty good, though
Feels good though, feels good!

And when that feeling you always get
Well it made me make a mess
And I was left in a puddle of...
Honey

In the distance I could hear
Words of wisdom whizzing by my ear
So I shut my brain
And let the filth run down the drain
My inner eye revealed the queen bee
With a turban wrapped around her head
Shaking her fist at me, she was angry
And it sounded like this...

When I awoke I thought I'd died
I actually did but not inside

I lay there swimming in a pool of scum and smut
That my ego threw up

Now I walk on water
Now I see the light

And if you see my friend the queen
Then you'll be alright
