There have been some times
I thought it was forever
Only to watch love disappear before my eyes
Have no one to hold at night

Well, I'm right back where I started
Just trying to make it better
Guess I'll just give love another try

I can't seem to stop
Starting all over again
And I wonder what it would take
For me to ever win

Till I finally find myself
A lover and a friend
I ain't never gonna stop
Starting over again

Three words, 'I Love You'
Are so easy to say
It's so hard to prove it
Night after night, day after day

Feelings starts to fade
When the new wears away
I won't ever give up
Till I find a love that stays

I can't seem to stop
Starting all over again
And I wonder what it would take
For me to ever win

Till I finally find myself
A lover and a friend
I ain't never gonna stop
Starting over again

I ain't never gonna stop
Starting over again
