(Fleming/Morgan/Quillen)

You went your way, I went crazy
Wondering who you might be with
It only took your phone call
To make me forgive and forget all
Never thought we'd be saying this.

Well, hello again
I can't believe it's you
Here lying in my arms like this
Making up for all the love we missed
Hello again
Our lonely nights are through
This time it doesn't have to end
Let's never say goodbye again
Hello.

I know every tear
Has a silver lining
I couldn't have said that, yesterday
Love brought us back together
I'm looking forward to forever
Every morning we wake up and say.

Well, hello again
I can't believe it's you
Here lying in my arms like this
Making up for all the love we missed
Hello again
Our lonely nights are through
This time it doesn't have to end
Let's never say goodbye again
Hello.

--- Instrumental ---

Just when we thought we had lost it
Look at the love we found
It's better than the first time
The second time around.

Hello again
Our lonely nights are through
This time it doesn't have to end
'Cause this is where real love begins
We'll never say goodbye again
Hello.

Well, hello again...
