Oh oh darling, you're starting to get next to me
Oh darling, I never thought that this could be, oh yeah
Your lips set my soul on fire, you're gonna be my one
desire
Oh darling I think it's gonna work out fine

Oh oh darling, I've been to see the preacher man
Oh darling, I've started making wedding plans, oh yeah
Your lips set my soul on fire, you're gonna be my one
desire
Oh darling I think it's gonna work out fine

I keep on telling you, baby
(I think it's gonna work out fine)
Oh stop what you're doing to me baby
(I think it's gonna work out fine)
I can feel it coming on
(I think it's gonna work out fine)
Oh I'm so glad that you're mine, all mine

Remember you used to call me dapper dan
Oh I was your real, your real ever loving man, oh yeah
Your lips set my soul on fire, you're gonna be my one
desire
Oh darling I think it's gonna work out fine

I keep on telling you, baby
(I think it's gonna work out fine)
Oh stop what you're doing to me baby
(I think it's gonna work out fine)
I can feel it coming on
(I think it's gonna work out fine)
Oh I'm so glad that you're mine, all mine

Remember you used to call me dapper dan
I was your real, your real ever loving man, oh yeah
If your love is half as true as the love I offer you
Oh darling I think it's gonna work out fine
