From: It's Too Late To Stop Now (KCRW Radio broadcast, July 1988)

If you ever

if you should ever need a fool

and if you ever

need a place you can run to

I will hold you in my arms shelter you from harm

what else could I do

I would be there

if you should ever need a fool

need a place that you can hide

and if you ever

need a place that's warm inside

I will rise up to the call no questions asked at all

what else could I do

I will be there

(guitar)

I would rise up to the call

no questions asked at all

what else could I do

I would be there

if you should ever need a fool (4X)
