Yeah yeah yeah...
Oooooohhh...
Yeah yeah...

Tell me why you stay in this relationship
When all you feel is pain
Tell me why you put up with him all this years
You got so much more to gain

I don't wanna be stepping on nobodies toes
But I think that you should know
He don't appreciate the things that you do for him

It's time to let him go
He's always with his friends, never by your side
Running up the streets, coming late at nights
That ain't the way that love is suppose to be Can't you see...

He ain't the one that's gonna treat you right
He ain't the one that's gonna be by your side girl
Deep down inside you know
You gotta let him go

Your so much better baby, can't you see that?
He ain't the one to give you what you need
I'll be the one to spend your whole life with
It's killing me cuz you can't see what I see
Girl you should be with me
Cuz he ain't the one for you...

I can see why you think that you are in love with him
Cuz he's all you ever had
But that it from me that ain't how it's suppose to feel
I can make you understand

I was there girl to wipe your tears when you cry
Everytime he broke your heart
Deep down inside I'm secretly in love with you
And it's tearing me apart
I'll treat you like he should
Never leave your side

I'mma spend the time
Girl I'll do you right
I'll show you the way that love's suppose to be Just come with me...

He ain't the one that's gonna treat you right
He ain't the one that's gonna be by your side girl
Deep down inside you know
You gotta let him go

Your so much better baby, can't you see that?
He ain't the one to give you what you need
I'll be the one to spend your whole life with
It's killing me cuz you can't see what I see
Girl you should be with me
Cuz he ain't the one for you...

All the times he made you cry
All the times he told you lies
All the times he let you down
All the times he weren't around
Girl you don't have to do this anymore
Just find the strength to walk up out the door baby...

He ain't the one that's gonna treat you right
He ain't the one that's gonna be by your side girl
Deep down inside you know
You gotta let him go
Your so much better baby, can't you see that?

He ain't the one to give you what you need
I'll be the one to spend your whole life with
It's killing me cuz you can't see what I see
Girl you should be with me
Cuz he ain't the one for you...

Girl he ain't the one, he ain't the one for you..(x9)
