[Verse 1:]

The signs were there, chose not to see it
I keep telling myself not to believe it no
The more I try, the more I was losing
It's crazy how this girl had me stressin' oh

[Hook:]

I try so hard to make it work everyday
But now I know, we were never really on the same page
Convince myself, but I was living a lie
Now all I'm left with, girl it's wasted time

[Chorus:]

Gave you everything I had but now I see
It was never in your plans to stay with me
And I can't believe I thought you were the one
I tried to listen to my heart but instead
I should've listen to my head, my head, my head
Should've listen to my head, my head, my head
Should've listen to my head, my head, my head
I tried to listen to my heart but instead
I should've listen to my head

[Verse 2:]

To try to please her, I started changing
Blowin' hot and cold, this girl kept me guessin'
Caught up without the plans I was making
So glad I never saw her misbehavin'

I try so hard to make it work everyday
But now I know, we were never really on the same page
Convince myself, but I was living a lie
Now all I'm left with, girl it's wasted time

Gave you everything I had but now I see
It was never in your plans to stay with me
And I can't believe I thought you were the one
I tried to listen to my heart but instead
I should've listen to my head, my head, my head
Should've listen to my head, my head, my head
Should've listen to my head, my head, my head
I tried to listen to my heart but instead

I should've listen to my head

[Bridge:]

Could of gave the world to make you stay
But to you, our love was just a game
But I know I'll learn from my mistakes
And this won't happen again

Gave you everything I had but now I see
It was never in your plans to stay with me
And I can't believe I thought you were the one
I tried to listen to my heart but instead
I should've listen to my head, my head, my head
Should've listen to my head, my head, my head
Should've listen to my head, my head, my head
I tried to listen to my heart but instead
I should've listen to my head
