I have finally learned
What I should have known
When my soul is longing, when my heart begins to roam
You are always there
When I pray each prayer
Lord, with you I have a home

Everywhere I look
Everywhere I turn
Everywhere I go I know
You'll be there
Everytime I reach
Everytime I fall
All I have to do is call and you'll be there, you'll be
there, you'll be there

I have finally seen
I have finally found
Love is there to guide me when my world is upside down
And it comes from you, Lord
'Though it's nothing new, Lord
You have turned my life around

Everywhere I look
Everywhere I turn
Everywhere I go I know
You'll be there
Everytime I reach
Everytime I fall
All I have to do is call and you'll be there, you'll be
there, you'll be there
