Before the night is dawn
Before the line is drawn
Before it's too late to wonder what went wrong
Let's talk about it, before love has gone

Before we both forget
The person we first met
Before the day spent together seems too long
Let's talk about it, before love has gone

Once, we were so meant-to-be
You were mine within a kiss
How could we treat our love so carelessly,
Not protecting something we'll both miss?

Before we go our way
With nothing more to say
Before our hearts find a new place to belong
Let's talk about it, before love has gone

Once, we were so meant-to-be
You were mine within a kiss
How could we treat our love so carelessly,
Not protecting something we'll both miss?

Before we go our way
With nothing more to say
Before our hearts find a new place to belong
Let's talk about it, before love has gone
