It was one for you...it was three for me
It was very nice...it was everything
So here it is...in little pieces...
I just played the part...I didn't win or lose Maybe next time I'll think about how I'm feeling...
"Cause I'm doing the best that I can
And the whispered secrets...go on and on
No one says anything to anyone
You watch after her...and your word is law
She thought she was out there...but nobody saw
I didn't win or lose...I just threw the cards
But I paid a price for it...

And it's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can
And I'm trying hard to change...I'm doing it the best that I can
Well because fate causes fortune and fortune takes it away
Well it's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can

I was silent...I was locked away
But I covered my tears...
Silent all day
It's out of my hands here

In my distress...well I wanted someone to blame me
In my devastation...I wanted so to change
In my way...disaster was the only thing that I could depend on...

But it's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can Yes it's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can Because fate causes fortune and fortune takes it away
And then fortune causes nightmares...nightmares that make you crazy
It's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can
It's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can Oh he says, "Well I hear you're doing fine and you're doing the Best that you can."
Well he says, "Oh, I hear you're doing fine and you're doing the Best that you can."

Ooh she says, "It's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can."

Yes it's alright, baby...I'm doing the best that I can

Oh and he says, "I hear you're doing fine and you're doing it the Best that you can."

Oh and he says, "Ooh I hear she's doing fine and she's doing it

The best that she can."

Oh and I paid a price for it...

I'm doing the best that I can...
