What's she got that I don't got, except bigger boobs?
A few inches to my height and nothing to loose, loose, loose, loose
What she's got to give that I don't got to give Except a fearless heart, some loving 2 beautifully sculpted opened arms, arms, arms
I know it hurt when you push me aside I didn't mind,
I didn't mind, I didn't mind Helped to bring me back, back, back to life, life, life, life, life
What's she got that I don't got, well that is you But it's ok, I will find something or someone else to do, do, do, do Do the do, do, do, do, do.
