This is that thing ah...
That I recorded with Jimi Hendrix and Janis Joplin out at the Fillmore West
Blues at Sunrise, yeah
You remember how we used to settle down when we get tired of jumpin' 'em up and down at the club.
We'd settle down, reach down and get 'em one from the bottom.

Now see you got to play the Jimi Hendrix thing, 'cause
he was in this too.

The sunrise in the East lover
It set deeply in the west

Yeah, The sunrise in the East
It set deeply in the west
I been lookin' for my lover and I haven't found her yet

I'm gonna call up China
and see if my woman's over there
Well, I'm gonna call up China
and see if my woman's over there

You I've searched the whole world over,
I can't find my lover no where.

At the Fillmore West,
I looked around one night I saw a guy looked just like you, I said, "I know that ain't Stevie done eased in there."
About that time Jimi said, "Let's play some blues"
I said okay, not without the Queen though - that's Janis.
We sent a guy out to get Janis, she came down with her little glass.
She always had a little glass, God rest her soul.
She said, "What's happenin'?"
I said, "we gonna do some blues, and we want you to start it off, honey."
She said, "Cool!"
and Jimi hit a two or three more licks, on the thing
there,

Do it again, I like that.

{guitar solo}

She won't write me no letter
She won't even call me on the telephone
No, she won't write me no letter
She won't even call me on the telephone

You know I haven't had no real good lovin' since that gal of mine been gone

{guitar solo}

Someday baby, You gonna want me like I want you
Someday baby, You gonna want me like I want you
But when you call me on the phone angel,
I say I have nothing for you to do

{guitar solo}

That's it!
