Got a case of armed robbery that ended up in violence
Maximum sentence, life in jail's what you're facin
Prosecution set it with your opening statement

[Canibus]

Your honor, before we get started
I'd like to give my condolences to the family of the dearly departed
Tyrone survived by his mother Barbara
His two year old daughter T'wana
And the baby's mamma Sandra
[He's a murderer! That animal killed my baby's father!]

[Rah Digga]

Order in the court!

[Canibus]

I'm sorry for the outburst your honor
I have an original copy of the police report
January the 4th the day that Kirk Jones got caught
The forensic report states there was a gun in the car
And gunpowder residue on Mr. Jones' right arm Baliff, could you please pass this report to Judge Battle
Mr. Fitzpatrick there's a few questions I'd like to ask you
You said you was outside the store in Manhattan
So could you please tell this court what you saw happened

[Superb]

Yeah he killed Tyrone
I saw everything, the argument, how son drewed, hose and everything
The worst shit I saw in my life
I wanna testify I swear before God it was Kirk Jones, no lie

[Canibus]

Did you see that man in court today?

Do you think that you could point him out?

[Superb]

Yes that's him right there

[Canibus]

Are you sure?

[Superb]

Yeah without a doubt

Same nigga that took my Pumas but I aint hold no grudge

Remembered his foul ass when I saw the blood

[Canibus]

You stated you had a run in with Kirk Jones before
In your opinion is he the type that would rob a jewelry store?

[Redman]

Your honor, objection!

His opinion should be stricken from the record!

[Rah Digga]

Objection sustained, prosecution next question

[Canibus]

I'd like to call my next eyewitness Mr. Paul Dejour
Paul could tell us what happened inside the store?

[Scarred 4 Life]

Yeah, it was about 20 past, I saw the S class
Pull up in the reflection in the mirror in the store glass
And quicker than you could say, nigga kiss my ass
He hopped out of the passenger side wit a black ski mask

I saw somebody run up in the store and order us on the floor

Yo I swore I was a goner for sure

He tried to snatch Tyrone's bracelet

It just appraised to the twenty grand and Tyrone wouldn't let him take it

[Canibus]

Is that the moment when he shot him?

[Scarred 4 Life]

Yeah man that's when he popped him

I was so scared I laid there, played possum

He started to blast this way, til the gat was empty

He took the gun handle and broke the glass display

He emptied all of the trays and ran out the store

And I watched Tyrone bleed to death on the floor

I can't remember no more, that's all that...

[Canibus]

Okay, okay calm down

I have no further questions your honor

[Rah Digga]

Court is now in session, now gettin back to business
Pat Haley for defense please call your first witness

[Redman]

Yeah aight your honor, I call up Henry Lace
He's the witness that I'm cross examin in for the case

[Guess Who]

Yeah I testify your honor, it was death by dishonor
It was a crime committed, I swear to you I know who did it
It happened so fast, I didn't see a lot of it
But I know for a fact he stuck a gun to his esophagus

[Redman]

Wait, wait, wait objection your honor, his statement's preposterous
There was no weapons found, no sign of no hostages
Remember Mr. Henry Lace you under oath [yeah I

Now where was you the night you claim he shot Tyrone
You and holmes had beef before Kirk got home
