All at once the hill peaked over the sea a view to kill someone secretly

Hidden beneath an old oak tree

You find me

Death comes close for a passer by

The hand of God comes down from the sky

A bullet fires from the gun barrel and a silver bullet takes his life and one will die,one will fall come crashing down,like a bolder on a brick on a brick wall

(chorus)

nothing was said,and the life flew like an eagle through the gates of heaven and hell can't buy,can't sell right through the gates of heaven and hell the gates of heaven and hell don't run,or you'll crawl from the sky you'll fall fall to me.

Behind a hood of cover the gun strikes from one another the sound waves bight lost witness with no recollection killer escapes into the night and all at once it goes quiet no sound nothing

now fight

(chorus)

left alone to dye,taken away to the sky the hand of God comes upon the dead one first took the father and now the son that was the final goodbye,goodbye that was the final goodbye

(chorus)

now he lives a death in the sky

goodbye,goodbye

that was the final

c.d or vinyl
