we rise to fight
as one we stand tonight
this is, this is our scene its what we breathe its our reality youll never understand the way that we live nothing to you, but we hold in so dear to live and breathe it truly is a way of life or a way to deal with that pain inside good times hangin out with all my friends times like these i thought would never end they never let us stay so young at heart the only way is just to let it fall apart but i cant cuz i know every friday night is hardcore. good friends. good times. and every saturday night you know its hardcore. stage dives. high fives.

its what we breathe its out reality

this is our life
