Your love is like a blue fire
It comes and it goes
Your love is like a blue fire
Will you come back, nobody knows

Like a lightning hits the ground
Your love came a tumbling down
Blue fire, blue fire
My love can't go any higher
My love can't go any higher

Till you hear the band of flame
My love will stay the same
You must know by now it seems
I can't live on these empty dreams
Blue fire, blue fire
My love can't go any higher
My love can't go any higher

Your love is like a blue fire
Gonna give you just one more chance
Your love is like a blue fire
Mm-mm, what a romance
Uh-uh, what a romance
Blue fire, blue fire
My love can't go any higher
My love can't go any higher
Blue fire, blue fire
My love can't go any higher
My love can't go any higher
