You left me blinded
Where did we go wrong
Every night I get reminded There's nowhere I truly belong

My eyes were closed
My heart was blind
Didn't see that the world
was closing up behind

I'm drowning in pain
didn't know I was so vain
Thought what we had would last
But now it's in the past
It went so fast how could I know
Was it you or just a show
How could I know what's real or not
Well I miss you, I miss you, I miss you a lot

I asked you a question
And the question is why
You gave me no answer like a man just passing by

My eyes were closed
My heart was blind
Didn't see that the world
was closing up behind

I'm drowning in pain
didn't know I was so vain
Thought what we had would last
But now it's in the past
It went so fast how could I know
Was it you or just a show
How could I know what's real or not
Well I miss you, I miss you, I miss you a lot

How could I know
It went so fast
How could I see yeah

Was this a show
Everything you said to me
How would I be able so see yeah

(How could I know
It went so fast
How could I see yeah
Was this a show
Everything you said to me
How would I be able so see yeah)
I'm drowning in pain
didn't know I was so vain
Thought what we had would last
But now it's in the past
How could I know what's real or not
