I know I made a heartache from a crush
And spoke of love too fast
When a simple 'hello' would make me blush but forget, how can you even ask

So long I've tried to figure it out
But no solution popped into my head
But you will never understand what this is all about and why I was walking around, and feeling like dead

To be honest I don't know why there's something about you
You were not very nice and quite stupid too
I'd give you everything if you just gave me a shot
I hope you know that I really loved you, I loved you a lot

If you couldn't see it then how can you see it now
You are my first real love but don't ask me why or how How will you ever know that you'll always be special to me
A little piece of my heart belongs to you too bad that this will never be woah yeah

To be honest I don't know why there's something about
you
You were not very nice and quite stupid too
I'd give you everything if you just gave me a shot
I hope you know that I really loved you, I loved you a lot

Realising now standing in front of you
Although my silly heart will always love you
I'm not your one and things will always be this way
You can't change fate so that's okay
So that's okay

To be honest I don't know why there's something about
you
You were not very nice and quite stupid too
I'd give you everything if you just gave me a shot
I hope you know that I really loved you, I loved you a lot

(Loved you a looooooot
Loved you a looooooot)
To be honest I don't know why there's something about
you
You were not very nice and quite stupid too
I'd give you everything if you just gave me a shot
I hope you know that I really loved you, I loved you a lot

I hope you know that I really loved you, I loved you a lot
