Hello my Dear my Honey Sweet surrounder of the soul I keep I wish I could lie with you in beds of roses all day but I know you cannot feel the same way that I do Just you give it up my dear
I'm more than you can bear
I'm the cross on your shoulders
Jesus Christ but mean disguised and every time you feel a little ill remember me its the Influence of Influenza And then you stand up your mind is twisting it's cold and you're shaking But I don't care what the Doctors say Baby you know I'll stay But your heart Isn't waking and if you leave me here waiting You'll be Forsaken
And your blood boils head and you're breathing heart
Just you give it up my dear
I'm more than you can bear
I'm the cross on your shoulders
Jesus Christ but mean disguised
oh open your heart and open your eyes the influenza is digging your grave
