She comes to me each evening

Stands right up close to me

I brush aside her perfumed hair

And kiss her so tenderly

(bridge )

Someday soon

I'm gonna tell the Moon

That Mr sunshine chased my angel away

And I tell myself

I don't need no one else

I thought my search was over today ( Today )

Chorus )

But where did she go

I really don't know

Exactly what this dreamin' can mean

As I try to unravel

My fantasies travel

Will I find her ( will I find her )

In my re-occurring dream

I lay , and watch her dreaming

Gently rise , gently fall

I cannot keep from thinking

The splendor of it all

( bridge and chorus )

I feel our hearts

Beat as one

As her love flows right through me

She's everything

I ever imagined

And she alone

Was reaching out for me

( chorus )
