My coffee cup is empty
And I've used my free repeat
Viewed from here on the inside
It looks cold out on that street
I close my eyes and imagine
A dancing turquoise blue sea
With warm white sandy beaches
And palms blowing in the breeze
Chorus
So I walk into the wind
Walk into the wind
Raise my collar way up high
And walk into the wind
Walk into the wind
Walk into the wind
No one can see me cry
As I walk into the wind
They say look to the future
And forget about the past
Here I'm cravin' that next deal
Not the one that I did last

It lifts me if only briefly

Leaves me hungry for that dream

Looking through fogged up windows

Blind to where my life has been

Chorus

At times like this my senses

Seem to bite a bitter pill

Nights pass in slow motion

And my days pass slower still

I'd gladly swap city noise

For the noise of waves and sea

Few of us truly escape

Unsworn dreams of reality

Chorus

Fade with...

Walk into the wind

Walk into the wind

No one can see me cry

When I walk into the wind
