So calm is the wake from a dream
Returning to the world feels strange
Did I sleep?
Or am I still sleeping?
Memories of the world are drawn together
In mediums

That these eyes have not seen
Put me under there's nothing left
When will I sleep? My eyes are so heavy
Why have I awoken?
Put me under there's nothing left
When will I sleep or am I still dreaming?

So sick is the plague of the world.
Memories of this world are drawn together
In mediums

That these eyes have not seen
Put me under there's nothing left
When will I sleep? My eyes are so heavy
Why have I awoken?
Put me under there's nothing left
When will I sleep or am I still dreaming?
When will I sleep or am I still dreaming?

Why have I awoken?
Put me under!
Why have I awoken?
Put me under.

When will I sleep or am I still dreaming?
When will I sleep or am I still dreaming?
