"Holding On"

Visit "Holding On" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been holding on
To what's left of our beating hearts
We never left each others minds

Lately I've been wondering
Hoping this is happening
If I could open my eyes

Oh I can see your eyes through thick and thin
I've been patiently waiting for answers for my entertainment

I've been holding on
To what's left of our beating hearts
I'll never laugh
We never left each others minds

Lately I've been wondering
Hoping this is happening
If I could open my eyes

Oh I can see your eyes through thick and thin
I've been patiently waiting for answers for my

Come close, feel me
Be by my side till the night falls
Come close, feel me
Be by my side till the night falls

Lost in the feel of this
My emotions are endless
Tell me, do you even, even
Lost in the feel of this
My emotions are endless
Tell me, do you even think like this?

Oh I can see your eyes through thick and thin
I've been patiently waiting for answers for my

Oh I can see your eyes through thick and thin
