Feel the fire of our hearts.
Feel the flame of our desire.
Alone we will find you.
But alone we are.
We are desperate for guidance.
We are looking for direction.
Open our ears.
You're almost like a shotgun ringin' out with no
objection.
Open our ears.
You're almost like a shotgun ringin' out with no
objection.
Show us how to move like you do.
We're movin now, we're movin now.
Starve us so we will have this hunger.
Let us look till we can look no more.
Alone we are searching.
But alone we are.
Open our ears.
You're almost like a shotgun ringin' out with no
objection.
Open our ears.
You're almost like a shotgun ringin' out with no
objection.
Show us how to move.
