Tripping my way across land
"No trespassing" in my hand
Controversy in the air
Art will take you anywhere

What's the king of a town making no sound,
But it still gets thrown upon the ground

I can just take it my way
The news can take the highway, in my town
The walls will give their way
To my pathway any day

Chorus:
The stars keep moving tonight
I have this heavy feeling it's graffiti at its best
And if I keep up this pace
I'll make it all the way to the covered bricks by now

They say the aftertaste is wrong
But I just ramble on
The capital remarks will say
But I won't give in any day
I can just take it my way
The news can take the highway, in my town
The walls will give their way
To my pathway any day

The stars keep moving tonight
I have this heavy feeling it's graffiti at its best
And if I keep up this pace I'll make it all the way to the...la!

The news will take the highway
I can just take it my way, in my town
The walls will give their way to my pathway any day
The stars keep moving tonight

I have this heavy feeling it's graffiti at its best
And if I keep up this pace
I'll make it all the way to the covered bricks by now
The stars keep moving tonight

I have this heavy feeling it's graffiti at its best
And the adrenaline unites a group unseen by human eyes
