An eye for an eye.
A tooth for a tooth.
Lashes to lashes.
Dusk until Dawn.

Your words, whispered,
your own demise.
The feeling you get,
Liberating inside.

Three cheers for you,
You've made it through,
With your interspective.
There's someone watching over you,
(Watching over you)
Despite all your questions

(Despite all your questions)

An ear for a tear.
A fang for a fang.
You're fighting and killing,
Your own self in doubt.

Three cheers for you,
You've made it through,
With your interspective.
There's someone watching over you,
(Watching over you)
Despite all your questions

(Despite all your questions)

Reading lips is what you wanted.
My last words to you
While you're walking away.
Nothing to say.
You fled the longest,
Failed on everyone.

Is this
What you wanted?

This is
What you asked me for.

Is this
What you wanted?
This is
What you asked me for.

Is this what you wanted?
Is this what you asked me for?

(Three Cheers for you)

Three cheers for you,
You've made it through,
With your interspective.
There's someone watching over you
(Watching over you)
Watching over you.

(Three cheers for you)
Three cheers for you,
You've made it through.
There's someone watching over you,
Despite all your questions.

Is this
What you wanted?
This is
What you asked me for.

Is this
What you wanted?
This is real.
