In the last second of my life
I will pray the words of love
Feelings of darkness fill my soul
And an angel speaks to me
"Don't close your heart."

Silence is a past of mine
And your sweet tears taste like wine

With the cold touch of death,
I feel the arms of heaven
but they send me to hell
And an angel speaks to me
"You have closed your heart."

Silence is past of mine
Silence is a past of mine
And your sweet tears taste like wine
Oh they taste like wine

Now it's too late
Now it's too late...

Silence is past of mine...
