"Bleeding For You"

I felt myself lost in circle of the devil,
I tried to hide my fears but I failed, again,
I wondered why I couldn't kill the pain, you share,
Everytime I'm here you seem to be anywhere, anywhere.

And I close my eyes for the last time,
But still you are not mine,
The scars are open again,
And I'm bleeding for you, I'm bleeding for you.

I never was able to hurt you,
But I did it not only once,
You never was my victim,
But I've always been your sacrifice, your sacrifice,

And I close my eyes for the last time,
But still you are not mine,
The scars are open again,
And I'm bleeding for you, I'm bleeding for you.
I'm bleeding for you.
