Pretty woman you lovely such and such

Think about the last time

You had a gentle touch

Did you feel it

Ain't it just too much

See somebody pretty

Look you in the eye

That's the one that touches you

Do you need a place to hide

And I'm just as bad as anything

You ever thought about anyone

And I know our time's goin' to come

Just as sure as the risin' of the sun

And I know she loves me so

See somebody pretty

Look you in the eye

That's the one that touches you

Do you need a place to hide
