She's a honky tonk angel that
You meet in the night
And she knows how to love you
And make you feel right
She's gonna wave you goodbye
From the back of a bike
She's the wrong reason
For thinkin' you might
Never love
The right girl
She keeps all her deep feelings
Wrapped up real tight
But she is gonna tell you
What she does and she don't like
She's a little bit hard
Certainly too tough to fight
She's the wrong reason
For thinkin' you might
Never love
The right girl

When she's around
Your head starts a'spinnin'
And she makes you forget
How you're mostly not winnin'
On a whim this girl
Would never think twice
About leavin' a good man
If another seemed nice
She's the wrong reason
For thinkin' you might
Never love
The right girl
When the woman for you
Suddenly shows up my friend
If your head is all messed up
And you're full of big plans
You gonna miss her completely
Never give her a chance
And for all the wrong reasons
You're thinkin' you can't
Ever love
The right girl
