"100 million eyeballs"

Something to see now is those who are his.
Living ones with different heads,
six wings,
100 eyeballs.

Day and night they never stop!
singing "holy, holy, lord god all mighty"

Laying down,
on the floor...
giving thier honor.
They cover thier heads,
they cover thier eyes,
they cover thier feet,
and still they cry "you're so good to me"
still singing,
"holy, holy, lord god all mighty"
"holy, holy, lord god all mighty"
"holy, holy, lord god all mighty"
"holy, holy, lord god all mighty".

The whole earth is full of your glory, your glory,
the whole earth is full of you glory, your gla-gla-glory.

Na nana na,
na na na nana.
Na nana na,
na na na nana.

Holy, holy, ha-ha-holy,
ha-ha holy,
ha-ha holy,
ha-ha-ha-ha holy.
