Baby's back, got a secret not of this Earth
All good things come in three's
Haven't you heard?

Feelin' all the things that I can't say
You got no idea what's in my head

I fly so high, you think I'm top of the world
Do you have the power to bring me down to Earth?

I'm your spy, don't want to leave you
Until you're safe
Fight a good fight under you daddy's shadow
We separate

You want to understand, I can't explain
You want to know who I am, you will one day

I fly so high, you think I'm on top of the world
Do you have the power to bring me down to Earth?

You want to understand, I can't explain
You want to know who I am, you will one day
You want to understand, I can't explain

I fly so high, you think I'm on top of the world
Do you have the power to bring me down to Earth?
