Showing off tonight
You've gotta know the girls won't let you down
Sha la la la la la la shiny lights
Because you know the girls won't let you down

White water rolling over
And the world below her
Turns her head for the better side

In the morning when she rises
Yeah we're all devices
Sets her head for the better times

Showing off tonight
You've gotta know the girls won't let you down
Sha la la la la la la shiny lights
Because you know the girls won't let you down

She's staying high
When the rain came down she wouldn't get washed away

She's staying high
When the waves came 'round she wouldn't get washed

White torch light shining over
And the world below her
As she turns in the dead of night

When the wave came, would she fight it?
She was undecided
Running up for the better times

Showing off tonight
You've gotta know the girls won't let you down
Sha la la la la la la shiny lights
Because you know the girls won't let you down

She dreams about flying
Into the sun

Over the highway
She might become
Out of the water
Into the sky

She's staying high
When the rain came down she wouldn't get washed
She's staying high
When the waves came 'round she wouldn't get washed

She's staying high
When the rain came down she wouldn't get washed
She's staying high
When the waves came around she wouldn't get washed away, get washed away yeah
