The sun is gone
The moon is high
A total eclipse tonight

I'm coming over, I'm getting closer

Let's go out tonight
Are you ready? Have you said goodbye?
Let's go out tonight
I've got something new for you to try
Let's go out tonight
I promise you the sun will never rise

Kiss the glitter off my lids
Spread your smile across my lips
Close my eyes and make a wish
This time it is for keeps

I'm coming over, I'm getting closer

Let's go out tonight
Are you ready? Have you said goodbye?
Let's go out tonight
I've got something new for you to try
Let's go out tonight
I promise you, I promise you
Let's go out tonight
I promise you the sun will never rise

Fate- it's our time to meet
You know what I mean
Won't you come with me and see?
It's our destiny
The stars at our feet
So darling please don't forget
Tonight lasts forever

Let's go out tonight
Are you ready? Have you said goodbye?
Let's go out tonight
I've got something new for you to try

Let's go out tonight
It's only you and I under the sky
Let's go out tonight
I promise you I promise you
Let's go out tonight
I've got something new for you to try
Let's go out tonight
I promise you the sun will never rise
