And even if I haven't known you for so long it hurts to see you sad to see the tears streaming down your face makes me so small beside you you say you can't make it without him by your side and that you don't understand why you cry because he would do anything for you no matter what

And I know that love can drive you mad I know that love can drive you mad

There are hard times in our relationships and there are hard times in our lives you're not alone my friend you're not alone you don't wanna think about it but there's no way out

And I know that love can drive you mad
And if you're in kokos nest I want to be there
And I know that love can drive you mad
And I want you to know that I do care

And I want you to smile because you're beautiful when you smile And I want you to smile because you're so beautiful when you smile

Please smile
Please smile

You know that I would carry you through the dark times if you can't take the steps on your own you know that I would come to your rescue if you're on the way to drown you know that I will force you to eat even if you through it all up you know that if you ask me to leave I'll stay until you fall asleep

Cause' I know that love can drive you mad And I want yo to know that I do care
