Câ´mon and show me
That you really know me
So close so tight
at least forty night*

Turning silver and gold into rubber and glue
Not supposed to let it get to you
Thatâ´s easy to say but hard to do

When you roll back into town
Theyâ´ll all be around- Just to show you
That friends like mine will never let you down
Untill you hit the ground-
Then they donâ´t know you

Take what you can borrow
But what about tomorrow
Just have to wait and see
Whatâ´s in it for me

Turning silver and gold into rubber and glue
Not supposed to let it get to you
It's easy to say but hard to do

When you roll back into town
They'll all be around- just to show you
That friends like mine will never let you down- down
Until you hit the ground

Youâ´re an open book
Hereâ´s a mirror take a look

Donâ´t like what you see
Donâ´t come to me

When you roll back into town
They'll all be around- just to show you

That friends like mine will never let you down

Then they donâ´t know you
