Shoe gazers in blazers
Introduce you to razors, so that
The Wilson twins - they can see you
In all your glory, in all your glory

Don't you care what all the people say
You don't care you're gonna do it any way
All eyes are on you and they're burning holes
There's no one left inside
Have you no pride

How many pairs do you own
How many patches have you sewn on your sleeve
Now you don't dare mend the holes
They tell your story yeah they tell your story
(Tell your story)

What do you write in that journal
Some kind of infernal poetry
So that I'll offer my help
But don't you worry, now don't you worry

Don't you care what all the people say
You don't care you're gonna do it any way
You're haulin out and you're cavein' in
Have you no pride

(x5)
Let's take a walk trough the crowd
