"Midnight Snack"

Iâ€™m sitting al alone in my room
Whit no one to share my oranjeboom
Everyone else in the house is asleep
And I want you right here next to me
Cause baby Iâ€™m not tired yet
So I head down to the kitchenette

For a midnite snack
(Midnite snack)
For a midnite snack
(Midnite snack)
Tell that girl of yours that youâ€™ll be right back
Cause I want a little piece of you with my midnite snack

Yoi drove up with your headlights on
I met you halfway across the lawn
And then you made me a rootbear float
But we finished it before you tokk of your coat
Baby youâ€™ve got the right attitude
You know that junk food gets me in the mood

I just wanna borrow you
And a box of cereal too
Donâ€™t have a heart attack
Cause you can have her back
I just wanâ€™t you for a midnite snack
