Well its only Thursday and it's no one's birthday
But were goin' out for the night
Make a few stops , avoid the traffic cops
Pick up some whiskey and some dynamite But theres always someone who's gotta spoil it for the rest of the gang You're such a little bogart and I'm sorry but you just can't hang
Why don't you pass it around
Don't bring the party down
If you don't pass it around We'll run you right out of this town
Well its already Friday gonna do it my way Everything's ready to go
But later on all the beer is gone Downed by some guys I don't even know
But theres always someone who's gotta spoil it for the rest of the gang
You're such a little bogart and I'm sorry but you just can't hang
Why don't you pass it around
Don't bring the party down
If you don't pass it around We'll run you right out of this
Why don't you pass it around
Don't bring the party down
If you don't pass it around We'll run you right out of this
Pass that glass, pass it around
Pass that glass, pass it around
Pass that glass, pass it around
Pass it around don't bring the party down Saturday night don't really wanna hide
You get 'em if you didn't pay Tell your little brother to go buy another Gimme back my Tamberay
But theres always someone who's gotta spoil it for the rest of the gang
You're such a little bogart and I'm sorry but you just can't hang
Why don't you pass it around

Don't bring the party down
If you don't pass it around We'll run you right out of this
Why don't you pass it around
Don't bring the party down
If you don't pass it around We'll run you right out of this
