Half cocked and fully loaded
Not even trying to sugar coat it
You're aimed at me, but you're shooting blanks
And it doesn't hurt, thanks but no thanks

But it's a matter of time
Till you get yours and I get mine
It might not be me
But you're gonna answer to somebody, revolver

You've got one foot in your mouth
and one foot in the grave
You were diggin' a hole
but now you're diggin' a cave
It's not gonna be funny anymore
By the time you wake up sobered up and sore

But it's a matter of time
Till you get yours and I get mine
It might not be me
But you're gonna answer to somebody, revolver

I left my comebacks at the door
I didn't know what I was in for You're deeper than you've ever been before
You're deeper than you've ever been before

You've got one foot in your mouth
and one foot in the grave
You were diggin' a hole
but now you're diggin' a cave

But it's a matter of time
Till you get yours and I get mine
It might not be me
But you're gonna answer to somebody, revolver
