I trust you with my tears
And my secrets never told
I trust you with my hopes and fears
And this hand to hold, I know you'll be true to me
Whenever we're apart, In a world full of uncertainty
I trust you, I trust you with my heeaaaart.

I been holding back so long, Afraid to give it all
Looking for a place to land, Trying not to fall
You showed me how to give, Let me take my time
You said somehow we'll just know, Or will never find

I trust you with my tears
And my secrets never told
I trust you with my hopes and fears
And this hand to hold, I know you'll be true to me
Whenever we're apart, In a world full of uncertainty
I trust you, I trust you with my heeaaaart.

The time is here and now, May it never end
And as each day goes down, Let love start again

I trust you with my tears
And my stories never told
I trust you with my hopes and fears
And this hand to hold, I know you'll be true to me
Whenever we're apart, In a world full of uncertainty
I trust you, I trust you with my heeaaaart
I trust you with my heeaaaart
I trust you.
